New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, July 2.—The profes-sional contingent in the speculation took its cue to-day from the failure of yesterday's market to respond to the favorable showing of the government crop report. There was no dif-ference of opinion as to prosperous promise of that showing in its yield of crops in excess of any previous of crops in excess of any previous year's valuation.

The wheat market showed some disposition to-day to take more account of the deterioration in spring wheat reported by the Agricultural Department than was done yesterday. Even in the corn market, the rise in price of that cereal seemed to belle in part the government's estimate of more than 3,000,000,000 bushels of that grain. No misgiving was admitted, however, over the great promise of the grain harvests. The wish to realize profits, nevertheless, overthew the force of the new demand for stocks, which was very scanty. Suspicion of the level of prices for a buying basis seemed to be more potent than the great progress in the country's affairs which is reported. The money market remained extremely easy and offered no discouragement to the operator in stocks.

Though interest rates continued low, the see secare notice that the heavy Conditions in the oats market, were similar to those in the corn pit, the July delivery scoring an advance of 2½c, while the new crop months held comparatively steady. The market closed strong at almost the best market closed strong at almost the best marks for the day.

Provisions were firm all day, owing to buying of lard and ribs by local packers. The bulge in grain and a loc. advance in live hogs were buillish factors. Prices at the close were unchanged to 15 points higher compared with yesterday's final figures.
